GROSSHERZOGLICHES LANDRABBINAT OLDENBURG

Druck u. Verlag J. J. Rikelis, Aachen

My father, Werner Weinberg, was the third of seven children of Amalie and Levy Weinberg. Born in Daton, he grew up in Oldenburg, and opened a Drogerie in Bremen. In 1936 he married my mother, Elsa Cahn Weinberg, of Oberzissen and together they fled the Nazi's in '38 and settled in New York. He was never able to return to being a druggist but did work as a chemist and later as the owner of a small toy and candy store in the German Jewish neighborhood of Inwood, Manhattan. My father died in 1971 after a long decline caused by Alzeimers Disease. Of the seven in his family, I am the only off-spring.
